

NEL Trip to Bournemouth 19th Sept '22

Hi All,

A few things to note.

- 1) I mistook the Brochure as 5 Nights.
Its NOT; it's a 5 DAY trip so only 4 nights (go home Friday)
- 2) With only 8 people interested so far, I've held off making enquiries at the hotel as its still quite a small number
- 3) The company Grand UK have sent Mick a message saying the new prices come into effect on 2nd May Although they say "New Prices, Same Amazing Holiday" Can you really expect them to go down?
- 4) Unless we get the group size over 10, It will be best to book individually, on 01603 6199337 Quoting BOR5 but specify SELF DRIVE
Arrival date 19th Sept Identify yourselves as part of a group 'NEL
- 5) Now for the bad news...I called today to verify price and availability, it is indeed £249/pp for self drive, however there are NO SINGLE ROOMS, If a double / twin s used singly, there is a £60 single occupancy fee, additionally, this has to be agreed not only with the hotel, but also The company contracts department as they need to ensure the whole proposition is viable. Their business is after all Coach Tours and for that; they need accommodation for their coach passengers.
